Who We Are

Republic Airways Holdings, based in Indianapolis, Indiana, is an airline holding company that owns Republic Airlines and Shuttle America. Our business strategy was developed by our experienced team of senior airline executives. The company's business model incorporates sound business strategies and insights for the development and management of airlines operating throughout the United States. We are professionals for whom flights – and the business of flying – are equal parts art and science.

Mission

Working together we will provide the safest, most reliable and most convenient travel experience for our passengers, a positive and rewarding work environment for our employees, and develop mutually beneficial working relationships with our business partners.
